FORDHAM ELEVEN IS OUTPLAYED BY HOLY CROSS AND BEATEN, 28 TO 0

NEW YORK ELEVEN SMOTHERED BY FOE

Vanquished Never Within Striking Distance of Worcester Goal Line.

SCORE IN EACH PERIOD

Victory Places New Englanders in Commanding Position for Catholic Football Title.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD. WORCESTER, Mass., Nov. 18.—Fordham, outplayed in every department of the game, went down to defeat at Fitton Field to-day at the hands of the powerful Holy Cross football eleven by a score of 28 to 0. The game, the last home game of the season for the Worcester lads, was witnessed by a crowd of about 10,000

No comparison could be made of the players of the two teams. At all stages it was decidedly in favor of Holy Cross. The Purple eleven from the minute the first whistle blew awept the New York team off its feet by flerce play of the Fordham eleven was a bitter disappointment to the Fordham students who had journeyed to Worcester to see the game, which was the last big" match of the year for the Marcon The New York team seemed to have none of the "pep" which characterized the eleven in previous games. Fordham made but about five first downs to at least four or five times that number for Holy Cross. Never were the New Yorkers within scoring distance was accorded to the Holy Cross team by the students. The entire student hody marched onto the field, sang the college song, and gave cheers for those eleven members of the squad who were to play their last home game for the Purple. Most prominent among these are Simendinger, McGrath, Healey, Cooney, Ray, and Golembeski. The Holy Cross players must have been deeply inspired for they proceeded to give Fordham its worst beating of the season. They worked together like a well offed machine. The Holy Cross touchdowns were made by Simendinger and Glennon and two by Broussard, Riopel and Broussard each accounted for two goals after touchdowns.

By its victory Holy Cross has assumed a commanding position in the race for the Catholic college championship of the East. The Worcester eleven had, previous to yesterday, already beaten Georgetown and now has to but beat Boston College on December 2. Early in the season the Boston College beat Fordham, 27 to 9.

Holy Cross scored one touchdown in every period. The game had been going but five minutes when the first Holy Cross touchdown was made. The Worcester eleven had on three first downs advanced the ball from midfield to the Fordham 3 yard line. Two line smashes by Riopel failed, but on the third down simendinger on a short run around end carried the ball over.

The second touchdown was accepted on Colleges Prepare for

DEFENSE CRUMBLES

It was after Dartmouth had rushed for two first downs in succession in the third period that Burtt intercepted the pass that ended in a touchdown for Columbia. The Columbia quarter-back found nobody near him when he pulled the oval out of the air. He sot into stride quickly. Half way down the Blue and White's 22 yard line. A little later the alert Burtt intercepted a forward pass for the second time when Dartmouth threatened again. This time, with many substitutes in the field, some-body in the Columbia fans nearly raised the roof off the Polo Grounds stands with their exultant yelling.

Western Pennsylvania Football Situation Badly Muddled by Result.

PITTSBURGH WHIPS

Special Dispatch to The New York Herato.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18.—Western Pennsylvania football dope was badly muddled to-day when the Pitt Panthers did the unexpected and trounced the Washington and Jefferson team 19 to 0. The game revealed the greatest "come-back" in form that Glenn Warner has produced since coming to Pitt.

The Blue and Gold outplayed "Greazy" Neale's warriora in all parts of the game, with the possible exception of forward passes, in which Brenkert, Shillers and Kopf excelled. Their plays in the second period registered four of the five first downs scored and W. and J. The Panthers played hard and straight football most of the time, and material
